

100 years of helping Catholic Charities Cares

Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Toronto celebrates its 100th Anniversary this year. It marks one hundred years of helping the most vulnerable in our community by leading and advocating for its member agencies to deliver social and health services.

The member agencies of Catholic Charities work with people at risk, especially those pushed to the margins of our society. And it has been present over past one hundred years for the poor and the vulnerable in our communities as a Catholic service community, responding to our brothers and sisters in need. At its core is Catholic Social Teaching that focuses on the poor and marginalized, urging us all to build a just society and safeguard the dignity of every person.

As we mark one hundred years of help, care and service, we know that we stand on the shoulders of all those who have come before us. We also know that for many in our communities, the struggle continues and so we must continue to be there for them...over the next one hundred years.

Emerging Needs

Catholic Charities' member agencies continue to find ways to meet the growing needs in our communities, investing in new and innovative ideas to meet emerging needs. Member agencies provide counselling assistance to families, help to young parents, assistance to seniors, care for children and guidance for youth in transition to a new and better life. They gently assist people who have special needs such as those who live with developmental disabilities and the deaf community.

Shared Services

As Social services are asked to do much more with much less, Catholic Charities member agencies are finding ways to work together creatively to improve their ability to provide the services that people in our communities need. Member agencies are exploring ways to share resources for the common good.

MEMBER AGENCY VOLUNTEER HOURS

TYPES OF SERVICES PROVIDED 2012

Volunteers strengthen Catholic Charities and its member agencies, because their work allows more to be done to meet emerging needs. Volunteers often work long hours. Based only on Ontario's hourly minimum wage ($10.25), volunteer hours donated to Catholic Charities totalled over $2.3 million!
